Directions and getting around

Getting here is easy and convenient by train, and you can use the regional buses to travel anywhere in the local district free of charge after you arrive...

Regio Oberbayern trains depart hourly from the main train station in Munich, traveling to the Alpenwelt Karwendel area via Garmisch-Partenkirchen and serving the Klais and Mittenwald stations.

The Regio-Ticket Werdenfels is a good option for this. It is valid for selected local DB train routes in the Werdenfeler Land area and on buses operated by RVO and other regional transit providers as well as on regional and S-Bahn trains in the Munich S-Bahn network.
